Hello Affiliate,

We're excited to announce the launch of a new and innovative linking technology that will increase your sales and boost your monthly commissions.

RingCentral In-Text Ads

RingCentral In-Text Ads are interactive links you place on your site that, on click, launch a small window that allows visitors to search for and reserve a Toll Free Number.

Once your visitor reserves a number, the window closes and we send an email with instructions on how to activate this new account.

Here's what's really cool, your visitor never leaves your site!

It's simple, engaging, and keeps visitors on your site throughout the process of reserving a RingCentral Toll Free Number.

Want to see how this works? Check out the In-Text Ads demo.

We'd like to encourage you to start using our In-Text Ad technology right away with an opportunity to earn more income in July!

7-Day vs 30-Day Free Trial Links

When should Affiliates use 30-Day Trial Links and 7-Day Trial Links?

Our latest studies show that 7-day trial links convert better than 30-day trials.

This means that you'll earn higher commissions (Lead plus Sale commission) by promoting the shorter free trial.

However, we suggest using 30-day trial links if you have a review/comparison/coupon site which compares RingCentral with similar providers that promote 30-day trials (i.e. a feature comparison grid).
